J.B. ECKERT

2004 – Now Videoed three original Christmas Stories for Landmark Center in St. Paul / Co-authored two-act musical: "Chickens on the Freeway, film at 11"/ Sold 80 plus percent of seats for all performances / Directed recreations of radio dramas at "Maggie's Farm," Bloomington Theater, St. Josephs players / continued appearances on TPT's fund raising drives / continued twin city & building tours...

2006 – 2014 Minnesota Historical Society / Interpreter 2/3, Fort Snelling / Voice of some historical characters / creator-writer-presenter special program elements...

1999 – 2020 Retails sales at MACY'S and numerous other, small stores / merchandiser

1991 – 2004 UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA: Voice of 30-minute, weekly, state-wide radio interview series about the University / Senior Executive TV Producer "Health Talks and 'U'" and associate Producer "Tech Talk" / Gave over 100 originally researched speeches as the Universities founding father, John Sargent Pillsbury throughout Minnesota and the United States during the "schools" sesqui-centennial....

1991 – 2020 METRO CONNECTIONS: In person Tour Guide / Tour conceptualizer / Public Speaker / Researcher / Enactor of historic Minnesota characters / guide US Bank Stadium, Minneapolis Symphony Hall, the Mississippi River, the Twin Cities, State Capitol, Landmark Center...

1987 – 1991 KTCA-TV: Pledge Break Producer and Presenter / scriptwriter / concept producer

1985 – 1987 POWELL LINCOLN MERCURY: Sold Lincolns and Mercuries / one month top salesman / dealership representative to nationwide company competition...

1982 - 1984 CONUS COMMUNICATIONS: Night News Editor / Program developer /

1980 - 1982 KSTP-RADIO: Acting News Director / News Program producer / on air presenter /

1978 - 1980 GOPHER STATE RADIO NEWS NETWORK: co-developer/investor/ New Director / Voiced and wrote newscasts / Vice President: Special Projects

Prior to this I worded at a number of Twin City Radio Stations as a DJ, voice for commercials / commercial writer / program developer / actor at the Old Log Theater in Excelsior Minnesota.