Personal Bio: Hi, I'm Masen Marcellus. I was born and raised in Miami, FL. I'm a hard worker who likes to get work done fast but also right. I'm a nice guy and easy to talk to, so I like getting to know a lot of people. My current goal is to really become my own person and find what I love doing so I can really put my all into it and make a living. I have family in Miami and Minnesota. They are my amazing support group and help me so I can do anything I put my mind to.
